JUNO ISLES ANNUAL MEETING NOTICE AND MATERIALS

Greetings, fellow Juno Isles Residents!

We have dodged some very serious storms this hurricane season. Let's hope the remaining six weeks of the hurricane season are uneventful.

This year's Annual Meeting will take place on November 14 at 7:00 p.m. at Ocean View Methodist Church on U.S. One. Click here to get the package that was mailed out today, which included the agenda and the proxy ballot. Click the 2024 Budget and Expenditures Report and draft minutes from last year's Annual Meeting to get those documents. These also will be posted on our website, junoisles.org, in the resident's section within the next few days.

Each year half of the twelve seats on the Juno Isles Board are up for election to two-year terms. This year, three board members will be leaving when their terms end at the conclusion of the Annual Meeting. The community is best served when all seats are filled. Whether you have a lot of time to offer or just a little, there is an opportunity to help our community. If you're interested in learning more, please talk to any current board member, or send an e-mail to board@junoisles.org.

On a personal note, I am one of the board members that will be leaving at the end of this term. It has been my pleasure to have served as President and Vice President during the last four years. During that time, we have been able to update our covenants to provide for metal roofs appropriate for our coastal, hurricane prone area; address the setback requirements along our waterfront property; and incorporate better guidance on signs. Perhaps most importantly we were able to speak for all 337 homes and convince the Seacoast Utility Authority that the expensive system they proposed was not the best alternative for our community. Thanks to all of you for your attention and participation. We look forward to your input at the Annual Meeting.
